Noted May the Dept issue?

20/1/13

4 The Dept can not, of course, pass any general order for admission of these boys, free in all schools, as prayed for by petr. He may however direct the Hd masters in the schools where they are reading to consider their case favorably in connection with the grant of free ships under the rules.

The petn may therefore be sent to the D of Ed for disposal

(Secretariat) 21/1/13

5 I think that it would be better to decide the matter here one way or the other. I thought the case deserved some concessions being granted accg to precedents. But on general principles the prayer was not granted. What alternative would the Concession now ask for amount to approximately? (See the previous file for particulars)

May It Please Your Highness

The humble memorial of K N Lakshmammal widow of Mr K N Narayana Iyengar the late Munsiff of Hole Narasipur most respectfully showeth:

1 That Your Highness' humble memorialist in gratefully acknowledging the receipt of Your Highness' Government Proceedings No J 1674-7/Cts 325-11-4 dated Bangalore the 11th December 1912 humbly begs to express her gratitude for the small act of mercy shown to her destitute family in their present emberassment and further begs leave to approach Your Highness with the following prayer in the sanguine hope that in consideration of the most unfortunate circumstances under which her husband met his untimely death Your Highness will be pleased to kindly reconsider her prayer and afford suitable relief to the destitutes whose future entirely depends upon the mercy sought for at Your Highness' generous hands now.

2 That Your Highness' Government who have graciously granted scholarships to the bereaved children of even clerks and servants of Your Highness' Government and have thus relieved the sufferings of many a poor destitute family should have taken exception to such grant in the instance of Your Highness' humble memorialist should only be attributed to the misfortune of herself and her children and nothing else

That the humble memorialist with a large family consisting of a mother-in-law herself and her young children without the help of any adult male member could not afford to give education to the children will be still more apparent - by the fact that her husband who served the Government only for a short time met his untimely death at an young age when he could not have even thought of laying by anything for the education of the most unfortunate children

4 That her husband died in harness of effects of serving in a Malerial place has already been brought to the notice of Covernment and she now begs that in consideration of the above facts Your Highness may be graciously pleased to re-consider the question of the grant of scholarship and if the concession cannot be granted to her unfortunate children - freeship atleast may be kindly ordered to be granted to them in all the institutions of the State in which they may prose-cute their studies in future Such concessions are not rare in Your Highness' Government and the destitute family in the present instance will only add one to the many who have alread been graciously favoured with similar concessions at your - Highness' generous hands

For which act of kindness and generosity herself and her unfortunate children will as in duty bound ever pray for Your Highness' prosperity

In reference to his letter dated the 17th inst. we have always found that the progress of Gangadharaya and Krishnappa pupils respectively of English II and Kannada I classes has been highly satisfactory considering the short period they have been in School. Both the boys have a quickness of understanding
